Re: Binyam Selamun, Thee Burden of Lemba

Menelik IV: This message derives from no personal feelings of my own, nothing from my perspective, nothing from my observances, but directly from AMLAK and what he desires. I'm the UPKY Nabi sent to bring correction, direction, and order from AMLAK, and what he requires. You've witnessed the fact that I am a Nabi who hears from AMLAK, and his message reads as follows:

AMLAK: Selamun, you should have been working with your brother, Menelik IV. I will strip you down for your arrogance and insolence... just as I did Hiziki'yasi. You did not heed the warning of my Nabi, just as Hiziki'yasi mocked Isayias. Your disobedience and rebellion has led to the negligence of my people. You did not warn or train Julius Malema, who is a King you should have taught to proclaim my name. Now, he has been targeted by the West, exposed because of your negligence and defiance by going off to a distant land, deserting the Lemba/ BaSena clans, leaving them in perpetual ignorance while you cower in your insolence. You rushed through your writings and published nonsense that does not teach what I represent. You, Selamun, have acted as a treacherous fool, ignoring my warnings for you to represent, all because you will not relent to humble yourself. Your evil is now felt throughout all of Bet Ezra'El. Now your arrogance has caused you to fail. Your soul is dead, see and recognize what is being said. South Africa is under attack because you refused to return and lead as a King. Now Caucasian foreigners will succeed. You brush things off and dismissed it not being your fault, and you will now be accountable to me, Herzega AMLAK, as you have become a dying breed. Your sons do not follow or honor me, and your wives were taken because of you, but you still ran away when I subdued you. What more proof do you need?

Watch how the first Caucasian President of Africa will arise because you chose to compromise my kingdom by not using your gift to teach Ge'ez, by not passing on the knowledge of my bloodlines.

You Selamun have committed heinous crimes against me and the ancestral lineage of Saba the King. You will not go unpunished by Berna'El. Mestema will subdue you and prevail because you do not revere me. Otherwise, you would have repented and relented your selfish will. You operate by how you feel, causing Bet Ezra'El to suffer when I gave you knowledge to pass on to buffer their enemies' attacks. You instead chose to sit back and be stagnant. Here is another message for you to change your ways.

Another warning, I have numbered your days. You want to fight against my King Menelik IV? I will cause you to have night terror dreams. REPENT! AMEND!!

Do what's right because you will not win this battle. When will you learn that you can't out maneuver me? Unless you repent and follow my plan, you will be listed as an evil being who refused to heed my voice, because wickedness was your choice. You think you have won, but you have not. Minase is a reminder of your fate.

Selamun, you have no more time to wait. You must give up your will and stop operating by how you feel. Obedience is what I commend, not taking matters into your own hands. The damage is already done, there is nowhere else for you to run. Serve Menelik IV so that you can be restored. Don't let Gehenna be your reward.
